

ACT Vocabulary

- The evanescent mist vanishes when the sun rises.
- Create two synonyms by filling in the blank:
- br ___ ___ ___
- temp___ ___ a ___ ___
- Define it as best you can & use it in a sentence being careful to make sure you are showing that you understand the meaning.

Soon passing out of sight, memory, or existence; quickly fading or disappearing.

Mea Culpa

- pronunciation : may-uh cull-puh
- origin/meaning : Latin, "my mistake" or "my fault"
- history/original meaning : the phrase originates from a Roman Catholic prayer of confession, which would have been spoken in Latin by monks
- modern usage :
(1) said by someone when they make a mistake, e.g. When Anthony told Maria that she had given him the wrong file, she said, "Mea culpa."
(2) we say that someone committed a mea culpa when they have made a mistake, e.g. The quarterback's mea culpa cost his team the game.
- Write a sentence below using mea culpa.

